

EVERYDAY DISCIPLE MAKERS | COLOSSIANS 4:2-6

Our culture and morals are rapidly changing. Politics, world events, COVID-19 and the government's response have brought a sense of discouragement and disillusionment to our nation. There is a sense of instability and confusion at what is going on. Amid all that is transpiring, there is stability available for the follower of Jesus Christ. He is the same yesterday, today, and forever (Heb. 13:8). His kingdom cannot be shaken (Heb. 12:28). And the mission we have received from Him is clear and unchanging. We are to be everyday disciple makers. A disciple is a learner or follower. We are to follow Jesus and help others to do the same thing. What are we reminded about disciple making and advancing the Gospel from Paul in our passage for today?

1. Everyday disciple makers _____ throughout the day, _____ God, and _____ from Him.

2. Everyday disciple makers use their _____ wisely, have a sense of _____, and are intentional about the way they _____ others.

3. Everyday disciple makers speak _____, with common _____, _____, _____, and _____ on God.

R.E.A.C.H.

Read the Bible.

Eat with others.

Acts of Kindness. Bless others.

Consider our calling to be disciple makers daily.

Hear. Listen to the Holy Spirit's guidance and hear others out.