

NOWHERE TO RUN | GOD, YOU'RE WRONG

JONAH 4:1-11

Where we left off . . . Jonah ran from God. God apprehended Jonah in miraculous ways. Jonah repented and obeyed God's call to preach judgment throughout Nineveh. The humble repentance of the Ninevites and their king led to God's judgment being averted. Jonah's message is embraced, and a massive revival takes place. The Ninevites are spared. God's Word accomplishes its purpose. Everyone is happy . . . not quite. Jonah wanted the destruction of the Assyrians. Jonah and God wanted two different things. Jonah was convinced God was wrong, and his way was better. What can we learn from this account of the prophet that thought he knew better than God?

1. When we think that our plan is _____ than God's plan we find ourselves in a _____.

2. A fundamental misunderstanding of God's _____ is exposed, when we believe we "deserve" _____, while others deserve _____.

3. Attitude is crucial. It can either propel us into the _____ of God or torpedo us into the depths of _____ and _____.
