

A MESSAGE FOR ZERUBBABEL | HAGGAI 2:20-23

Haggai's prophetic messages were for God's people who had returned to their land from exile. They neglected to build God's house and instead focused on their own houses. They faced the consequences of not making God a priority. They never had enough. God sent Haggai to confront them and they listened to his messages. They begin to work on the temple again. However, God did not only want them to do the right thing, but He also wanted it to come from a right heart. They were doing the right things externally, but now it was time to make sure they were right internally. As they turned to God in holiness, God blessed them. Now, God has one more message for Haggai to deliver. The message is for the political leader Zerubbabel. What does God promise him, and in what way is it a message to us?

1. God has reversed his judgment and restored Zerubbabel.
2. God will include Zerubbabel's place in the line of David.
3. God will establish the eternal throne of David.
4. God's message of hope to Zerubbabel is a message of hope to all who follow Him.
