

TACTICS OF OUR ENEMIES | NEHEMIAH 6:1-19

The finish line was in sight. What began as a simple question regarding the state of Jerusalem had now transformed into a crucial building project that would be completed at a record pace. Nehemiah went for quite a ride and he knew God's hand was on him and this project. Often when the finish line is in sight our enemies are the most desperate to sidetrack us. This was case for Nehemiah as former foes would return with plots to stop him from rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem. Let us look at the plots used against Nehemiah to identify plots that may be used to sidetrack us.

1. Our enemies may lure us from the will of God to attempt to _____ or _____ us. 6:1-4
2. Our enemies may try to _____ us and _____ others against us. 6:5-9
3. Our enemies may use _____ and _____ to cause us to _____ or _____ God. 6:10-14
4. Our enemies may _____ and _____ our ranks requiring us to _____ in the face of long-term opposition. 6:15-19
