

HE'S NOT FINISHED YET | NEHEMIAH 7:1-73

Our passage today marks a transition in the book of Nehemiah. The wall is complete, and the gates are installed. The book could have ended right now. But God had further plans. He did not want to rebuild a wall for the sake of rebuilding a wall. He wanted to rebuild the wall to rebuild people. When God rebuilds His people, He takes certain actions. We see this as He continues to use Nehemiah to accomplish His purpose.

1. He leads Nehemiah to appoint those to _____ Him according to the _____ and _____ He has given them (7:1).

2. He guides Nehemiah to empower _____ who have _____, _____ faith, and effective _____ (7:2).

3. He enables Nehemiah to enact _____ that _____ His people (7:3-4).

4. He put it into Nehemiah's heart to _____ what He had done and tie the _____ to the present and the future. (7:5).