

FROM BROKEN TO BURNING HEARTS | LUKE 24:13-35

The Resurrection of Jesus has a profound, unparalleled effect on our lives. The Apostle Paul said in 1st Corinthians that without the resurrection we are of all people most to be pitied. D.K. Lowery commented on Paul's statement when writing that the denial of the Resurrection tears the heart out of the Gospel message and leaves it lifeless. If the Resurrection didn't happen the Christian faith would be useless since its object would be a dead man. However, we know JESUS IS ALIVE. We see today how He turns broken hearts into burning hearts as we take a journey down the road to Emmaus. What truths do we learn from this encounter with the resurrected Jesus?

1. God is there, carrying out His _____ even amid _____, _____, and darkness.
2. God uses His _____ to teach us during difficult times and it should be our 'go-to' for _____ and _____.
3. Encountering Jesus makes all the difference. The Resurrection is so crucial because Christianity is all about a _____ _____.
