

BACK TO CHURCH SUNDAY | ANOTHER IN THE FIRE
DANIEL 3:1-30

Have you been short on hope lately? Times have been hard recently and it can be easy to feel down. Although life is filled with uncertainties, we can be sure of one thing- trials will come our way. Imagine for a moment that you're nation has been overtaken, your city has been ransacked and you have been forcibly taken from your family and your home. You are taught a new language and a new culture. What you believe is constantly being challenged for a few years. Then you find yourself in the trial of your life. Do you become discouraged and worn down to eventually give up? Or is there a Hope worth holding onto that enables you to stand in the midst of the fire? What can we learn about holding on to Hope and standing strong from the ancient story of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abedego?
