The Evidence of the Triune God in Christmas |
The Word Became Flesh,
John 1:1-18

We have spent this Christmas season looking at Christ's birth with the Trinity in mind. We have seen clearly that the Father and the Holy Spirit were intricately involved in the birth of Christ. We also recognized that Christ, set aside His divine privilege and became a human, and in full obedience to His Father gave His life for us. The Father has exalted and will exalt the name of Jesus above all other names. Tonight, we will take a trip to a place we can barely comprehend- eternity past. We will see the Son's role in the creation of all things, His dominance over darkness, His life making our new birth by the Holy Spirit possible, and His ability to make God known. Why should our hearts be filled with worship for Christ on Christmas!

1. Christ, the eternal Son who came in the flesh, gives us _____ over the _____of this world.

2. Christ was _____ by His very creation, His very people, however, those who _____ Him will become truly _____.

3. Christ became one of us that first Christmas so we could experience the _____ and _____ of God and truly _____ Him.
