2 CORINTHIANS 11:16-33

There is a misnomer that if you become a Christian, life will be easy and fun all the time. You will be rich, and you will be healthy. You will live your best life now and know no pain. But the problem with that thinking is that we live every day in a spiritual battle. Jesus told us that in this life we will have trials, but to trust in Him because He has overcome the world. We have a peace that surpasses all understanding (Philippians 4:7), inexpressible joy (1 Peter 1:8), and a blessed hope (Titus 2:13) in Jesus and as we wait for His appearance. But we have those things despite the difficulties of life, not instead of them. Paul's opponents in Corinth seemed to have equated Paul's suffering with weakness and questioned his apostleship. He had to go toe to toe with them to win back those in the Corinthians church that had fallen for them and strayed from Christ. Paul was an authentic servant of Christ. What can we discover about being an authentic servant of Christ from Paul's example?

1. An authentic servant of Christ can expect to be _____.
2. An authentic servant of Christ can expect to _____ as Christ did.
3. An authentic servant of Christ can expect to be _____.
4. An authentic servant of Christ's ministry is _____ by _____ alone.

2 CORINTHIANS | RECOGNIZING A TRUE SERVANT OF GOD
2 CORINTHIANS 11:16-33

There is a misnomer that if you become a Christian, life will be easy and fun all the time. You will be rich, and you will be healthy. You will live your best life now and know no pain. But the problem with that thinking is that we live every day in a spiritual battle. Jesus told us that in this life we will have trials, but to trust in Him because He has overcome the world. We have a peace that surpasses all understanding (Philippians 4:7), inexpressible joy (1 Peter 1:8), and a blessed hope (Titus 2:13) in Jesus and as we wait for His appearance. But we have those things despite the difficulties of life, not instead of them. Paul's opponents in Corinth seemed to have equated Paul's suffering with weakness and questioned his apostleship. He had to go toe to toe with them to win back those in the Corinthians church that had fallen for them and strayed from Christ. Paul was an authentic servant of Christ. What can we discover about being an authentic servant of Christ from Paul's example?

1. An authentic servant of Christ can expect to be _____.
2. An authentic servant of Christ can expect to _____ as Christ did.
3. An authentic servant of Christ can expect to be _____.
4. An authentic servant of Christ's ministry is _____ by _____ alone.
