IN VIEW OF THE RESURRECTION | I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE JOHN 11:1-57

Throughout the Gospel of John, Jesus makes several "I am" statements. He said, "I am the bread of life", "I am the good shepherd", "I am the door", "I am the way, the truth, and the life", "I am the true vine", and "I am the resurrection and the life". This Easter season, as we focus on the resurrection, I want to begin our series by learning what Jesus meant when He said He was the resurrection and the life. We see Him demonstrate this in one of His greatest miracles or signs. He displayed His power over death, foreshadowed our resurrection, and at the same time forced the Jewish leaders' hands. The Jewish leaders would seek to kill Him, which would lead to Him willingly laying down His life and rising again. What should we believe about Jesus based off of His resurrection of Lazarus?

1.	Jesus is focused on	the	which is our
		with Him.
2.	Jesus is	with unbelief, sin	, and death, but has
		for those suff	ering from the consequences of sin and death.
3.	Jesus's words and actions leave us either
	in Him or	to Hin	n.
