

2 CORINTHIANS | BEWARE OF A DIFFERENT GOSPEL

2 CORINTHIANS 11:1-15

There are times in our life where we need to 'act a fool'! In my opinion it should be rare that we intentionally act in that way. Some of us unintentionally do it a little more often than we would like. Paul sets a precedence. When should you 'act a fool'? When should you boast? For Paul it was clear: When the glory of God is at stake and those whom he loved were in spiritual danger. The battle for their souls and for this church comes to the forefront in our passage. Paul shares some key principles that help us avoid being led away by false teachers and false teaching.

1. We are bombarded by messages that sound good, inspiring, and convincing, but _____ of any _____ or _____ to Christ, the Holy Spirit, or the gospel.

2. _____ is more important than _____.
_____ is more important than _____.

3. Just as Satan can disguise himself as an angel of _____, false teachers can disguise themselves as _____ _____ and _____.
