

FOLLOW ME | SHALL WE LOOK FOR ANOTHER?
MATTHEW 11:1-24

Jesus chose twelve men and trained them as followers. They accompanied Him while He did ministry and He taught them both formally and informally. He demonstrated His authority, priority and His identity to them. He demonstrated His heart for the lost to them, and then stirred them up to pray for laborers to reach the lost. He sent them out to be the very laborers they prayed for and gave them His authority. He warned them and sent them out on a specific mission among the people of Israel. They went out as sheep amongst wolves. After He instructed His disciples, He went out to teach and preach in the cities of Israel. While teaching He received a question from someone who arguably was His biggest fan, the one who called Him the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world, the one who trained some of His disciples before they became “the Twelve”. As Jesus responds, we see what a follower of Christ looks like and does not look like. How does a follower of Jesus respond to His revelation?

1. The follower of Christ recognizes the _____ and _____ of God and that there is _____ to follow other than Christ.
2. Followers of Christ receive a _____ because they embark on the mission God has given them with _____ and boldness and are not _____ because they stand with Christ.
3. For the one who rejects Christ, there is great _____ especially when they have been _____ to the Gospel and faithful witness and yet _____ to repent and believe.
