WHO IS JESUS ACCORDING TO REVELATION
Revelation 1:12-19 & Various Passages

Christology means the study of Christ. In an article published in 2020 by Ligonier Ministries the following was written: "It may not be a great surprise that the majority of the general U.S. population rejects the deity of Christ, but now almost a third of evangelicals (30 percent) agree that Jesus was merely a great teacher. And while 66 percent of American evangelicals disagree with the statement, "Jesus was a good teacher, but he was not God," nearly as many (65 percent) still agree with the statement, "Jesus is the first and greatest being created by God." The confusion illustrated in these results suggests a dire need for Christians to be taught Christology, the doctrine of the person and work of Jesus Christ. Revelation gives us a fuller picture of who Jesus is." By neglecting Revelation, our churches have neglect God's Word and a fuller picture of who Jesus is. What does Revelation teach us about Christology?

1. Jesus is the Second Person of the Trinity and the Eternal God.

2. The historical Jesus and the Jesus of Revelation are one in the same.

3. Jesus is the _____ from the _____ leading the way to a bodily _____ for all believers.

4. Revelation gives us a clear view of Jesus as the _____ _____ on the clouds.
